

Appendix A: Martyrology

References to the Old English Martyrology are to a modified version of the system in the MCOE, and so require some comment here. Rather than dividing the material according to the six MSS (as the Toronto Dictionary has done), references in this volume assume a division according to the individual entries in the edition of Günter Kotzor, Das altenglische Martyrologium 2 vols. (Munich, 1981; the text appears in volume 2). This system, designed by Donald Scragg for the Fontes Anglo-Saxonici and changed slightly to conform to the style of the present volume, assigns a letter, or letters for each entry; in order to avoid ambiguity, "l" and "o" are avoided in all cases; "i," "v," and "x" are not used alone; and "ii," "iv," and "ix" have been excluded.
